

QUANTITATIVE LITERACY ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

Conference Agenda

October 9, 2009

Conference Center at NorthPointe

- 9:30 a.m. Registration and Hospitality
- 10:00 a.m. OMSC Business and Introductions
Recognition of Conference Sponsor
William Steenken, OMSC Executive Board Chair
- 10:15 a.m. Dr. Rikki Blair, AMATYC President
“How can we create alternative mathematics pathways for our students?”
- 10:45 a.m. Breakout Workshop Session 1
“Deepening Personal Experience: QL Contexts across Content Areas”
Grade Bands: K-5; 6-8; 9-12
- Noon ----- LUNCH -----
- 1:00 p.m. Breakout Workshop Session 2
“So What Could QL Look Like in My School?” (Continuation of Session 1)
Starting Points for Classroom Activities and Resources
Grade Bands: K-5; 6-8; 9-12
- 2:45 p.m. ODE Update: Universal Skills in Ohio’s Standards Revision
Brad Findell, Ohio Department of Education
- 3:15 p.m. Table and Large Group Reflection and Report
George Viebranz and William Steenken
- Conference Evaluation and Feedback
 - What Quantitative Literacy Resources and Outreach Should Coalition Partners Design to Support Ohio’s Education System?
- 3:45 p.m. Closing Remarks, OMSC’s Ongoing Plans to Support QL in Ohio
Research and Resource Development
Bill Steenken, OMSC Executive Board Chair;
- 4:00 p.m. Adjourn

Conference hospitality supported by a generous contribution from Ohio Educational Tools.

See their solutions for improving Ohio mathematics and science education at:

www.educationaltools.org/main.asp?s=oh