

John Conklin

John Conklin received his BA from Transylvania College in Lexington, KY and his MS in Mathematics from Ohio University. Now retired, he taught mathematics at Trimble High School in Athens County for 35 years. He has presented at OCTM and NCTM meetings. He served on the writing team for Ohio's Academic Content Standards for Mathematics and as a member of the development team for Ohio's Mathematics Learning Conductor. He served on the Board of OCTM, on the Board and as President of OMELC, and currently serves on the Executive Board of OMSC and on the Mathematics Review Board of ORC. He is a member of OCTM, NCTM, OMELC and OMSC.